

7 April 2010 – Notices of Appeal lodged without Notice of Decision

The tribunal receives a significant proportion of appeals lodged without the respondent notice of decision. This creates considerable administrative difficulties since much of the information the tribunal requires to process the appeal is included in this document. Processing appeals lodged without the respondent notice of decision places additional and often unnecessary burden on the tribunal.

The tribunal is in the process of reviewing its notice of appeal and accompanying notes, together with other customer information, to reinforce the importance of lodging an appeal with the notice of decision. Please ensure that wherever possible you lodge your appeal with the notice of decision.
